Two-time stroke survivor, award-winning author, motivational speaker, and Executive Director of Southern California Hospice Foundation (SCHF), meeting Michelle Wulfestieg will cause you to believe that anything is possible. With the heart of a servant-leader, Michelle understands just how precious life is and believes that as long as you are here, you have a purpose. Her own health struggles drew her to the field of Hospice where she has dedicated her life's work, which is described in her award-winning book, "All We Have Is Today: A Story of Discovering Purpose."

Today, Michelle hopes to be an inspiration to those who are struggling. Her greatest wish for you is that you'll find your true purpose, using the gifts you were given to change a life, to make a difference, to do good, to be all that you can be.

"Be strong. Be bold. Become all that you are meant to be."
