

Expert Panel to Discuss End-of-Life Options and Preparing for the Future

Presented by the Fit Brain Club and MemorialCare Saddleback Medical Center Foundation

Tuesday, July 22 | 7 p.m.

Gate 12, Clubhouse 2, Sequoia Ballroom
24112 Moulton Parkway, Laguna Woods

Fit Brain Club

Join us for an in-depth panel of medical experts on palliative care, hospice and MAID (medical aid in dying).

True McMahan, MD

Medical Director, Palliative Care, MemorialCare Saddleback Medical Center

Dr. McMahan has 27 years in patient care. A former nurse, she earned her MD from Baylor and completed residency at UCLA. She's taught palliative care since 2012 and provides hospice care through VITAS and MemorialCare.

Suzanne Platt, RN, BSN, PHN, CHPN

Palliative Care Nurse Navigator, MemorialCare Saddleback Medical Center

With 40+ years in nursing, Suzanne began in England's cardiac ICU and has deep experience in hospice and palliative care, supporting patients and families with compassion.

Pamela Reuben-Eubanks, NP

Program Coordinator, Palliative Care, MemorialCare Saddleback Medical Center

Pamela is a nurse practitioner with 15+ years in geriatric and palliative care. She holds a master's from George Washington University and has worked in hospitals and skilled nursing.

Karen Morin, RN

End-of-Life Consultant & Advocate

Karen founded LA Patient Advocates and specializes in oncology, hospice and medical aid in dying, working closely with patients, families and hospices.

Michael Crvarich, CPA

Executive Director, Legacy Giving, MemorialCare Orange County Region

Michael holds master's degrees in Accounting and Pastoral Studies. He helps families leave lasting legacies through values-based charitable estate planning.

Submit questions to:

Grace Carpenter

carpenter41mg@gmail.com

310-780-0320 (text)

*Please formulate questions for the panel based on your needs or after viewing the documentary films
End Game (2018) and Extremis (2016) on Netflix.*

Light refreshments provided by O'Connor Mortuary

For Laguna Woods Village residents and their guests

