LOST AND FOUND INFORMATION

The VMS Security Services Department strongly encourages residents to:

- Retrace steps to the last location where you last saw/had item
- Return to clubhouses, pools or library if you suspect you lost your item there, as they have their lost and founds. High-value items to are sent to the Security Services office.
- Please call our message line and leave as detailed a description as possible of your lost item; recall identifying characteristics of the item, i.e., color, engraving, size, etc., and where and when you may have lost the item.

The following high-value items are kept at the Security Services office for 30 days only:

- Money
- Phones
- Wallets
- Keys
- Glasses
- Jewelry
- Hearing aids
- Electronic devices (iPads, laptops, etc.)
- Resident ID cards are sent to the Leasing Division in the Community Center

Security does not take clothes, tennis balls, water bottles or gym equipment. If high-value items are turned into Security Services, staff does its best to locate the owner of the lost item. Staff usually reply to residents within 48 hours.
