

Everything's Coming Up Roses

Kathy Monge, Master Rosarian

Wednesday, March 22, 2023, 2:00 P.M at Clubhouse One

Kathy Monge is a Master Rosarian, Horticulture and Arrangement Judge for the American Rose Society. Her latest adventure in roses is hybridizing. Kathy grows approx. 150 rose bushes in Santa Ana, CA with an emphasis on miniature and micro-miniature roses.

Kathy will be presenting the ABCs of Growing Roses in small gardens despite the challenges of our dry Mediterranean climate. She will remind us that we can create lush rose beds to fit our needs and abilities no matter the size of our gardens. This also includes growing a rose or two in pots. Kathy will show us that petite perennials planted among the roses can add a splash of texture and dainty flowers to help attract pollinators that are so vital to our ecosystems.
