Trance Channeling and the AfterLife with Lori Camacho

Lori Camacho is a trance vocal channel, clairvoyant healer, and spiritual teacher. She channels a guide named "Raina." Together Lori and Raina teach workshops, spiritual development programs and provide private intuitive healing sessions. Lori remembers communicating with Raina as a child while navigating a life of uncertainty and abuse. She overcame her past and healed herself through spirituality and her relationship with her higher self and Raina.

Lori has also experienced three near-death experiences in her lifetime. During this presentation, Lori will share her life experiences that led to a life of spirituality and channeling.

Following this talk, she will enter the trance state and allow Raina to share her own messages of the afterlife, love, healing, and wholeness. Channeling is spontaneous, and the messages are always unique to the attending group.
