Jennifer will share what she has learned as a medium from our loved ones in spirit and other spiritual beings about life in the spirit world and what they can offer and teach us about how to live our most fulfilling lives bringing heaven to earth.

Jennifer Rose serves as an international spiritual evidential medium, trance healer and channel, teacher, public speaker, transformational guide, writer, poet, and humanitarian. In addition to her one on one work with clients, she demonstrates mediumship for small groups and large audiences, Spiritualist churches, and for charitable causes, spreading the awareness that love and life are eternal. She is known for her accuracy, love and compassion when connecting with Spirit. Teaching mediumship, healing, and spirituality is also a passion of hers, helping others to discover and enhance their spiritual gifts, and embrace their own unique way of working. Her mission is to help remind others that we are all Spirit too, and made from the absolute love that embodies us. Through the know thyself journey, we continue to unfold our divine eternal connection. She also hosts For the Love of Spirit Sunday Spiritual Service, bringing the spiritual community together in celebration of Spirit. Jennifer is honored to be part of the love, hope, healing, and peace that is gained through mediumship, healing and spiritual development. Jennifer is also the host of Embracing Infinity on the Sacred Spiral Network - an exploration of love, higher consciousness, and living life to its highest potential.
