

Timeless Melodies

with Larry Maurer

PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

JANUARY THROUGH APRIL | DOORS OPEN 1:30 P.M.

MUSIC HISTORIAN LARRY MAURER RETURNS

for another unforgettable Timeless Melodies series.

These lively multimedia lectures celebrate music that set the standard for future generations. Your toes will be tapping—and you will leave humming a familiar tune!

JANUARY - APRIL 2026

January 27 – Irving Berlin

An inspirational self-taught legend who wrote more than 3,000 songs without any formal musical training. Aside from singing with his father in the temple, Irving Berlin was a songwriting powerhouse whose life spanned 101 years.

February 24 – Love Songs for Your Valentine

Hear the greatest love songs from the masters, including George Gershwin (“But Not For Me”), Irving Berlin (“Cheek to Cheek”), Rodgers and Hart (Isn’t It Romantic?), Cole Porter (I’ve Got You Under My Skin”) and more of the timeless great standards.

March 24 – Oscar’s Best Songs 1935 - 1959

“Over the Rainbow,” “Thanks for the Memory” and “Three Coins in the Fountain” are three beloved songs that earned the coveted Oscar—but who wrote them? Join Maurer for an engaging hour of music and history as he opens the envelope and announces the winner.

April 28 – ‘I Gotta Be Me’ Sammy Davis Jr.

A revealing look into the life of this trailblazing performer that confronted racism with brilliance, versatility and unmatched talent. Singer, dancer, actor, comedian, he was always “quick on the draw.”
